

What is the GNC Technical Alliance Consultant Rosters?

The GNC Technical Alliance has established rosters of vetted consultants to support actors working in emergencies to source technical expertise quickly. There are five (5) different rosters, each covering a specific technical area:

- Community Management of Acute Malnutrition (CMAM)
- Infant and Young Child Feeding in emergencies (IYCF-E)
- Micronutrient supplementation in emergencies
- Integrated nutrition-specific and nutrition-sensitive interventions
- Needs assessment and analysis for nutrition outcomes

Who can use the GNC Technical Alliance Consultant Rosters?

Any partner, agency, cluster, sector or technical working group in country identifying a need for Nutrition staff support.

How to place a request to the GNC Technical Alliance Consultant Rosters?

Send an email to technicalallianceroster@nutritioncluster.net with the Alliance Consultant Rosters request form filled in and the consultancy ToRs. All usual interlocutors from the global level (GNC, GNC HelpDesks, UNICEF HQs) can also receive the request; they will redirect it automatically to the Alliance Consultant Rosters Manager. The GNC Technical Alliance Consultant Rosters Manager will enter in contact with the requestor to fine tune the request and recommend a list of suitable candidates with their CVs and sample of works.

Who are the consultants recommended by the GNC Technical Alliance Consultant Rosters?

Each application to the rosters undergoes a thorough selection process that may include screening of candidate CV, review of the provided work samples, contacting references for additional information, conducting interviews or other activities as deemed necessary in each case. After the recommendation of candidates by the GNC Technical Alliance Consultant Roster Manager, the requestor will continue the usual internal recruitment process (select appropriate candidate, discuss the job offer, conduct background check, etc...).

I am interested in doing consultancies, why should I apply for GNC Technical Alliance Consultant Rosters?

Being part of the rosters means that your profile went through a thorough vetting process and is available to more than 40 NGOs and UN agencies worldwide which are regularly looking for consultants.

How can I apply to be a part of the GNC Technical Alliance Consultant Rosters?

The applications for the rosters are open on an ongoing basis. Once a person is placed in a roster, he/she will remain there for up to 36 months, unless requested to remove him/her earlier.